

Lawyer – at least 3 to 5 years PAE

Fox and Thomas is a progressive Goondiwindi based firm with offices in Brisbane and St George. We are seeking a bright and enthusiastic lawyer with at least 3 to 5 years PA experience to join our Goondiwindi office where our legal staff enjoy the benefit of:

- varied work with direct client contact;
- a diverse client base built on many years of being a leading rural practice;
- the opportunity to develop strong business relationships with clients;
- direct access to partners in all of our offices;
- the support of an exceptional team of experienced paralegals;
- competitive salaries which also recognise non-financial contributions to the firm;
- progressive IT and administrative systems and support;
- a real opportunity to progress within the firm;
- a friendly and supportive working environment;
- the opportunity to participate in and become a member of an active and vibrant community; and
- a true work-life balance in a firm that is committed to professional development and which recognises that happy employees benefit both the firm and its clients.

Fox and Thomas also benefits from its membership of Law Australasia, an association of independent Australasian law firms committed to achieving best practice in practice management and client service.

The successful applicant will be experienced in, or looking to develop their expertise in, estate planning, business succession, general commercial and property law. He or she will also understand the value of developing strong client relationships and have a commitment to delivering quality legal services at all times. Applicants looking to develop the personal, legal and management skills to take them to partnership are encouraged to apply.
