

Lawyer (Commercial & Estate Planning) – 3+ years PAE

Fox and Thomas is a progressive full-service agribusiness firm consistently recognised by Doyles Guide as a Queensland leading agribusiness law firm.

Fox and Thomas is seeking a lawyer with at least three years' experience to join our Agribusiness Team focussing on Commercial, Structuring and Estate & Succession Planning in either our Brisbane or Goondiwindi offices.

This role offers the opportunity to work closely with business owners, primary producers and family enterprises on a broad range of commercial and agribusiness matters, while enjoying autonomy, direct client contact and mentoring from experienced practitioners.

Our lawyers enjoy:

- direct client contact;
- autonomy to manage files from commencement to completion, supported by experienced Directors and senior lawyers;
- exposure to a diverse range of commercial and agribusiness matters across Queensland and New South Wales;
- the opportunity to develop strong business relationships with clients and other industry stakeholders;
- dedicated administrative support; and
- ongoing professional development, including attendance at conferences and opportunities through Law Australasia, an association of independent Australasian law firms.

The successful applicant will have an interest in agribusiness, at least three years' experience in commercial, property or estate planning, with excellent communication and client relationship skills, and a commitment to delivering practical, high-quality advice.

Applications must include a cover letter and resume, including referees, addressed to:
