

Lawyer (Family Law) – 3+ years PAE

Fox and Thomas is a progressive full-service agribusiness firm consistently recognised by Doyles Guide as a Queensland leading agribusiness law firm.

Fox and Thomas is seeking a lawyer with at least 3 years' experience to join our Family Law Team in either our Brisbane or Goondiwindi offices. While our preference is for full-time in-office, we would consider some flexibility for remote work for an experienced lawyer.

This role offers the opportunity to work on a broad range of family law matters while enjoying autonomy, direct client contact and mentoring from experienced practitioners.

Our lawyers enjoy:

- direct client contact;
- autonomy to manage files from commencement to completion, supported by experienced Directors and senior lawyers;
- exposure to a diverse client base across Queensland and New South Wales;
- the opportunity to develop strong relationships with clients and other industry professionals;
- the opportunity to work in a full-service agribusiness law firm and benefit from internal resources and collaboration across teams;
- dedicated administrative support; and
- ongoing professional development, including attendance at conferences and opportunities through Law Australasia, an association of independent Australasian law firms.

The successful applicant will have at least three years' experience in family law, excellent communication and client relationship skills, and a commitment to delivering practical, high-quality advice. An interest in agribusiness and regional Australia will be highly regarded.

Applications must include a cover letter and resume, including referees, addressed to:
